

The Trumbull Business Expo is coming to Trumbull High School on March 28, 2007 from 3:00 – 8:00 p.m.

It is open to residents of all ages and businesses at no charge.

Get valuable information about careers and business opportunities or get answers to your business questions.

This is a community service providing educational presentations and an opportunity to tap into expertise by asking questions at their exhibit booths.

What you'll find at the EXPO:

You will find business experts eager to answer your business-related questions. We have assembled over 35 exhibitors from Trumbull area businesses and many of them will also give presentations to students at the high school. The Business Expo is a free resource to expo visitors. Exhibitor/speakers pay a nominal fee to cover the expenses.
